Today in the Ausseerland

Local History Collection of the Strick Family

The Strick Local History Collection in Bad Mitterndorf, which has been awarded the Austrian Museum Seal of Quality, grew out of Franz Strick's mineral collection, which grew over generations and is now run by his daughter.

The museum displays a historical library, minerals, votive pictures, the masks of the Santa Claus play and a large private nativity scene. During the Christmas season, the house becomes a nativity scene exhibition.

Municipal library and ludothèque

Located on the historic Chlumeckyplatz, the public library & toy library invites you to visit. With over 8,000 items, it offers an impressive selection of books, audio books, films, games and magazines for all ages and interests. The cozy atmosphere and diverse range of books make the library an ideal place for relaxing hours and exciting discoveries.

Vergissmeinnicht-Vintage Factory

The Vergissmeinnicht Vintage Factory is a lovingly run store and atelier where sustainability is a top priority. Used dirndls are given a new lease of life here, and the dirndl skirt is constantly being reinterpreted as a stylish alternative. The range is complemented by nostalgic tableware and unique handmade items by the five creative ladies. The cooperation with Lebenshilfe Ausseerland is particularly valuable: ceramics, woodwork and herbal salts from their workshops are available in the store.
