Today in the Ausseerland

Ausseer Lebzelterei

The Ausseer Lebzelterei in Bad Aussee is known for its traditional gingerbread, a handmade product with a long history and unique taste. Visitors have the opportunity to experience the art of gingerbread making up close, enjoy the sweet smell of freshly baked delicacies and taste the handmade specialties directly on site.

Church St. Ägid Altaussee

The church in Altaussee, built in the 12th century and first mentioned in the 15th century, is an important testimony to regional history. The Gothic sacrament house and the patronage of St. Ägidius show the deep religious ties of the community. To this day, the church is considered the spiritual center of Altaussee.

Mountain Redender Stein

If you take a break at the "Talking Stone", then known as the "Reddening Stone", you will sometimes hear strange noises. The wind roaring through the rock creates strange noises. Wrap up your senses and hike to this sight in the Tote Gebirge and then enjoy a culinary treat in the Albert Appelhaus!
